A MESSAGE FROM THE COMMITTEE

It is hard to believe that we are almost at the end of the year. This year's committee brought a combination of experience and youth, vigilance and confidence, and most importantly, a sincere passion and dedication to serve which made 2009 a very fruitful year.

We are delighted with some very successfully activities this year. We have completed many projects aimed at enhancing the facility for broader use. Among them were roofing work, re-painting the upper hallway, power-washing the downstairs floor, installation of a canopy at the back entrance, and more. The temple grounds have been attractively maintained, assisted to a great extent with enthusiastic participation was being admirably helped by many volunteers and HARI school youth.

This year, with two scholarly priests, the temple doors are now open more hours and HARI priest services were extended for your home seven days a week to fulfill all of your religious needs. We are also thrilled to announce that we have successfully concluded obtaining green cards for the priests and their families.

In addition to our regularly celebrated functions, we introduced new events such as goddess Lakshmi puja and Shiva Abhishek during shravan month, Rakshabandhan and Yagnopavit ceremony. We also invited renowned scholars and artists from here and abroad for religious discourses and classical performances. We held an exciting and very entertaining social gathering, India Fair, celebrating the HARI Anniversary. The success of these was evident by the large attendance to these events.

We continued to focus on the long-term sustenance and growth of the organization through the "HARI Trust Fund" efforts. HARI held its first Gala early this year attended by more than 250 patrons – it was a great evening enjoyed by all. The event was held to raise funds for the Trust Fund with over $30,000 raised!

With excellent services provided by priests as well as a growing group of new volunteers for the Executive Committee and the Board of Trustee positions, we are convinced that the HARI Temple will continue to remain a vibrant presence serving the cultural and religious needs of the Hindu community in this region.

This year we will celebrate "Diwali – Annual Day" on Saturday, October 17, 2009. This is an actual day of Diwali which makes it a very special day of celebration for HARI. Please plan to attend and enjoy the function and seek the blessings of Lord Rama for "Good Health, Peace, and Prosperity."

Yours in service,

Mr. Janak Amin
Chairman, HARI Board of Trustees

Mr. Pallav Bhonde
President, HARI Executive Committee

HARI Times is a bi-monthly publication of Hindu American Religious Institute (HARI), located at 301 Steigerwalt Hollow Road, New Cumberland, PA 17070. HARI Trust Fund... Providing Growth, Financial Safety and Stability

Hindu American Religious Institute "HARI" has been blessed with a congregation that has supported it unstintingly since the inception in 1975. That support has led to one of the most prominent Hindu landmarks in the capital of Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. We thank the founders and senior members of HARI congregation for their vision and commitment.

This legacy must now be nurtured and preserved for future generations. In 2004, the Board of trustees had initiated a "HARI Long Term Self Sufficiency" initiative. In 2005, "HARI Trust Fund (HTF) Steering Committee" was formed, which developed a strategy and an action plan. In 2006, an agreement was signed with "The Foundation for Enhancing Communities" to manage the funds for HARI. HTF, being an Endowment fund, the principal is preserved. Only the earnings is used based on the need of the Temple and the Board of Trustees approval. Under Donor advised funds, Donors, have a choice of naming the donation and say in as to how and where the funds can be used.

- Why does HARI need an Endowment (HARI Trust Fund "HTF")?
 - ✓ Operating expenses go up each year as costs of our utilities, insurance, staff compensations, facility maintenance, and supplies rise. Operating income needs to be supplemented for maintain facility and expanding services.
 - ✓ To provide long term self sufficiency and growth for HARI Temple.
- What is the Goal of HTF?
 - ✓ To have a minimum of One Million Dollar $1,000,000 in the HTF.
- What are the Benefits to HARI?
 - ✓ HARI gets a steady income stream from the earnings* of the HTF.
 - ✓ Needed capital expenditures can be planned and completed to ensure that the temple is well maintained on an Annual basis.
 - ✓ HARI can continue to preserve Hindu religious and cultural heritage through expanded services and programs.
- Who is managing HTF at HARI?
 - ✓ HARI Trust Fund Steering Committee, reporting to the HARI Board of Trustees.
 - ✓ At present, the Committee consists of all past Chairman's, President's and Volunteers.
 - ✓ HTF Coordinator, an appointee of the HTF Steering Committee provides the operational support for the HTF and is the facilitator among the Donors, HTF Steering Committee, HARI Board of Trustees and, the Investment Manager.
- Who is managing the funds for HARI?

The Foundation for Enhancing Communities "TFEC" Harrisburg (formerly known as Harrisburg Foundation), under the direction of the HTF Coordinator, and Steering Committee..
- What is "Sri Hanuman Tree"?
 - ✓ It is a donor recognition sculpture designed by the famous artist "Sanford Werfel", located on the ground floor, just below the deity of Lord Rama.
 - ✓ Based on the amount of donation, name (Children, Parents, Business or Yours) will be inscribed on the leaves of the tree.

- ✓ You are welcome to donate any amount to HARI for any initiatives. Any donation above $2,500 over five years towards HTF or Projects or General Donations or other Gift Instruments will be recognized in the tree.
- How do I participate in HTF?
 - ✓ Contact any current Board of Trustees or Executive Committee members.
 - ✓ Complete HTF Pledge form and mail it to HARI at 301, Steigerwalt Hollow Road, New Cumberland, PA 17070.
 - ✓ To join the committee and volunteer, please contact HTF Coordinator, Dr. Ray Kathiresan at (717)790-0786 or raykathiresan@yahoo.com.
- What are the other ways I could invest in the Mission of HARI?
 - ✓ At present, with the assistance of TFEC, we are in a position to accept various Gift Instruments like: Life Insurance Policy, Publicly traded Securities, Closely held Stock, Real Estate, Tangible Personal property, Retirement Plan, Planned Gift (revocable, irrevocable), and Donor Specified Named funds.
 - ✓ Please, contact the HTF Coordinator for more details.
- What is the current status of the HARI funds?
 - ✓ Fund Summary: For year end 2008 the overall Trust Fund experienced a decline in market value of 27%.

For 2009 the Trust Fund began with a market value of $236,179. During the year additional contributions of $40,000, with unrealized gains of $38,624, investment income of $4,135 and a realized loss of $24, resulting in a 8/31/09 market value of $318,914. HARI SCHOOL

Dear Parents and HARI members:

We are happy to welcome you all back to HARI School! The HARI School has started off to yet another great year! We have added interesting and fun classes to our program this year. Some of the classes we have added are Hindustani (bhajans); Carnatic vocal music; Violin; Mridangam; Kuchipudi; Kathak- classic and modern dance; etc.

Every year we plan to improve and make HARI's school more interesting and fruitful. We welcome your feed back and suggestions. We convey our thanks for your continued support. Please visit HARI website (www.haritemple.org) for additional information regarding the HARI School or feel free to contact any of our school directors.

Symbolism in Hinduism

by Mrs. Lakshmi Shrikantia

Hinduism is often labeled as a religion of thousand gods. This misunderstanding arises when we fail to grasp the symbolism of the religion. Supreme Reality (Bramhan) as we all know is formless and these different aspects of one reality are symbolized by the many gods and goddesses. For example, Brahma is that reality in its role as creator of the universe; in Vishnu it is seen as the preserver and the upholder of the universe; and in Shiva that same reality is viewed as the principle of transcendence-destroyer of evil. These are the Trimurti, the ' three forms,' and they are not so much different gods as different ways of looking at the same God. Each emphasizes a particular aspect or function of the one reality. "Ekam sat vipraha bahudha vadanti" or "Truth is One, the wise call it by many names." The forms are many, the reality is one; the principle is very deeply rooted in Hindu thought, and was stated at the very outset in the Rg Veda: "The Supreme Being has no form at all and yet is inherent in all forms." Idol worship is a tool for harnessing the eye and mind on God. The Vishnu Samhita (ch 29, v 55-7) an ancient ritual text explains idol worship as:

"Without a form how can God be mediated upon? If He is without any form, where will the mind fix itself? When there is nothing for the mind to attach to, it will slip away from meditation or will glide into a state of slumber. Therefore the wise will meditate on some form, remembering, however, that the form is a superimposition and not a reality." Images of God are not necessarily idols. We do not actually worship the statues, icons, or symbols themselves, but rather use the images as a point of focus for devotion.

"Aham Brahm asmi (I am Bramh/the spirit or essence of everything)," "Tat twam asi (Thou art that/Bramh alone exists and is the essence of everything), "Aham sa (I am He (Bramh)/an individual is a soul wrapped up in a physical body),"? Since the unenlightened mind hasn't the capacity to perceive these statements as proceeding from the ultimate refinement of consciousness. The teachings of the Vedas and Upanishads had to be clothed in symbolism, and presented in allegories. According to the Bhagavad Gita, even those who worship other gods (anya-devatah), ancestral deities, elemental powers, if they do so with faith, then their faith is justified, for the Divine accepts every form conceived by the worshipper.
